LOUISBURG
FEMALE COLLEGE.

REV. T. M. JONES, A. M., Pres't and Proprietor.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will begin on the second Wednesday in January, 1866.

Louisburg is a village seldom surpassed for health, intelligence, refinement and morality. It is in Franklin County, nine miles from Franklinton, on the R. and Gaston Railroad. Between these points there is a daily stage line, connecting with trains going North and South.

The College building, located in a beautiful grove, on an elevated site, is large, commodious and well ventilated. It will be thoroughly renovated, and fitted up with neat furniture and fire places in the dormitories. It is our purpose to establish for young ladies a school of the highest grade, affording superior facilities for the acquisition of a thorough and accomplished education.

With the advantages of a good library, a well selected Chemical and Philosophical apparatus, a competent Faculty, and large experience in connection with the Greensboro Female College, we hope, by a faithful discharge of duty, to merit a liberal share of patronage. Boarding pupils will live as members of the President's family. Terms reasonable, and will be made known in due time. Those desiring to send their daughters, will please address me, for the present, at Greensboro,' N. C., and circulars will be sent.

T. M. JONES.

WEBSTER'S
VEGETABLE HAIR INVIGORATOR,
IS LIKED BY ALL IN PREFERENCE TO ANY in market for ten reasons:

1. Because it invariably turns gray hair to its original color in the short space of four weeks.
2. Because it is clean and nice, and will not stain the skin.
3. Because it removes all Dandruff and Scurf, and is as harmless as water.
4. Because thousands are using it, and every body should.
5. Because it is peculiarly adapted to all classes, old and young.
6. Because it is purely vegetable—not a dye.
7. Because it kills hair-eaters, and makes the hair luxuriant and soft.
8. Because it cures all humors and diseases of the scalp.
9. Because it arrests and prevents the hair from falling.
10. Because it is no humbug, but an honest article, as multitudes can testify; and if it don't prove as recommended, the money will be refunded.

☞ Be sure and use the Invigorator according to directions on the bottle. ☜

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Editor.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1865.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For six months, - - - - -	$5,00
For one month - - - - -	1,00
" two months - - - - -	2,00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The scarcity of money however, obliges us to say to our friends, that responsible and prompt persons who desire the Sentinel need not delay sending us their names at once, who can send us the Cash in a short time. The money may be sent us by the Rail Road Conductors or the Express Company.

The friends of JONATHAN WORTH, Esq., have requested us to announce, that he will be supported throughout the State at the approaching election, for Governor of North Carolina.

☞ The Papers of the State are respectfully requested to publish.

Tickets! Tickets!!

Members of the Convention and others who desire them, will be supplied with tickets for Jonathan Worth, for Governor, on application at the Sentinel office.

The Candidates.

The people of North Carolina have now two candidates before them for the office of Governor. Three days ago, his friends announced the name of that incorruptible patriot and consistent Union man, Jonathan Worth, Esq., of Randolph, as a candidate. On yesterday, the Standard announces the name of His Excellency W. W Holden, Provisional Governor of North Carolina, as his competitor. The Standard of yesterday also contains a correspondence between fifty-three gentlemen, out of the one hundred and twenty members of the Convention, and Gov. Holden, requesting him to become a candidate for the office of Civil Governor. Many of these gentlemen were prompted in this course, by an excellent spirit,—believing it best for the peace and quiet and interests of the State to have but one candidate and that one Gov. Holden. We do not by any means blame or censure them for this step. Their motives and the men cannot be called in question. We think however, they are honestly mistaken, in supposing that the bringing out of such a man as Jonathan Worth in advance of Gov. Holden, would in the least disturb the quiet of the State or prejudice her cause, either with the President or with Congress.

We are in a situation to appreciate their course. The Sentinel has uniformly, up to the Convention, discouraged opposition to Gov. Holden, if he desired the position, and warned the Standard that its course would most certainly provoke it. When the Convention met, we found the impression to prevail among those who visited us, that Gov. Holden could not bring out the Union vote of the State—that a meagre vote at this time would seriously damage our cause, and that the only possible course to bring out the vote, was the selection of another candidate. All seemed to regret the necessity—all felt regret that Gov. Holden had not met the expectations of the people in imitating the magnanimous policy of the President.

Mr. Worth, whose record was well known, was not only urged by members of the Convention but by citizens from all parts of the State, to become a candidate. It will be charged that even Jonathan Worth is a Secession candidate. Such a slander is too bald to be believed, even by his enemies, if he has any. We are quite sure, that none but the truest Union men in the State urged him to run. No former secessionist we judge intimated to him his desire that he should run. He is before the people in his true light, a life-time Union-man. Can his competitor say as much?

The Sentinel supports Mr. Worth on purely political grounds. We like his life-time political record better than we do Gov. Holden's. That is the sole reason why we prefer Mr. Worth. I we were influenced by personal feelings, by private considerations, we should take a different course. But we honestly believe that Gov. Holden cannot represent the true Union feeling of the State, and that the masses will not support him for civil Governor. If the result proves that we are mistaken, we shall most cheerfully acquiesce in the will of the people. Whatever may be the course of the presses in the support of the Governor, we shall not retort with bitterness, nor shall we assail or knowingly do injustice to him.

District Court.

It is understood that Judge Brooks will hold a District Court for the State at an early period. The Standard intimated the other day that unpardoned persons ought to make haste to seek and obtain a pardon, before the work of confiscation begins. We trust President Johnson will defeat all movements in that direction.

Pardons.

Many persons have applied for pardon in this State, and have not yet obtained it. Some perhaps, have failed to apply for pardon up to the present time. We think such delay to apply is improper. We would suggest to all to apply at once, and those persons who have applied and have not obtained pardon, had better back up the application by a trip to Washington City. Let all such get the recommendation of the Governor at first, if they can.

Messrs. Murray & Tredwell offer a fine stock of goods at D. C. Murray's old stand.

"The Secession Party."

We warn the people every where against the attempts that are now making by the "straitest sect," and their papers, to produce the impression that there is a "secession party" in this State. The results of the war have killed secession in North Carolina as dead as a herring, and buried for ever the "secession party." It can never rise again, and those who attempt by their slang and abuse of those who were formerly secessionists, to revive and resurrect that party, are enemies to the peace and quiet of our people and will utterly fail. There are still in the State many who were formerly secessionists in principle and advocates of resistance to the Federal authority during the late contest, but they acknowledge the Confederate cause utterly overwhelmed and defeated, and the doctrine of secession an impractible idea and an impossible thing. They have made an honorable submission to the Federal Government, and have in good faith subscribed to the oath of amnesty.—They are therefore citizens—most of them as good citizens as we have, and are as much entitled to the confidence and sympathies of a common brotherhood, as any citizens of the State. They have surrendered to the necessities of the situation, and with the rest of their fellow citizens claim the same rights and immunities. They have not surrendered their manhood—their right to free thought and free speech, nor their right to the confidence and protection of the government.

They have no party but the National Union party. They are supporters of the liberal and magnanimous policy of President Johnson, and will of choice support men of liberal views without regard to their former political opinions. They believe that the time has come, when personal and political bitterness should cease; when good citizens in other respects should not be ostracised or abused and pointed at, because of their former political opinions. The liberal men of the State who were and are the true Union men, think as they do, and hence extend to them the hand of friendship and sympathy. Hence it is, for this reason, and because they are honest supporters of President Johnson, they will cast their votes at the coming election for the noble old Roman, Jonathan Worth, and those who sustain him. The "straitest sect" have forced them from them by their unfriendly and proscriptive spirit, and who can blame them?

"The Secession Organ."

The "straitest sect" party are endeavoring to impress the public with the idea that the Sentinel is "the Secession Organ." Such an attempt does not disturb us. Every man in the State who knows any thing of the editor or his business, knows full well, that it is not the organ of any person or party. That no living man but the editor is responsible for starting the Sentinel or has a dollar's interest in it. The editor is the sole owner and manager of it. It advocates truth, fidelity and justice, and the cause of every good, honest man in the State, no matter what has been his former political course, provided he is a supporter of liberal, magnanimous views, and is the friend of President Johnson's policy.

The editor is and has always been a Henry Clay whig of the true stamp—a Union man from the roots upward, but a friend and supporter of the honor of the State, Zeb. Vance, Gov. Graham, Jonathan Worth, and the rest, who stood by the State, during the war and now. The editor never was a secessionist, nor has his paper been a secession paper, nor can it be. But it has a proper respect for all honest men, who differed with him in opinion, whether they were secessionists or Union men, while it abominates a mean, truckling spirit—demagoguery and deception of all kinds, and will not lend itself to bolster up any man who loves himself or his party, better than he does his country. These are our principles, and these assertions no man living or dead can gainsay or disprove.

Members of Congress.

Mr. J. G, Ramsey of Rowan is a candidate for Congress in the 6th Congressional District.

Jesse R. Stubbs, Esq., of Martin, is a candidate for Congress in the first District.

Tennessee.

Gov. Brownlow and his friends in Tennessee are not pleased with President Johnson's policy. It is too liberal for them. They insist upon the further punishment of all persons engaged actively in the revolution. Brownlow and his party will form a nucleus for the formation of a Black Republican party in Tennessee. The narrow, illiberal spirit which they evince, will array itself everywhere against the policy of President Johnson.

MASONIC ITEMS.—We learn that a number of the Masonic fraternity have organized a new Lodge by the name of "Anchor" at St. Mary's in this county

We also learn that a new Lodge, called "Wm. T. Bain," in honor of the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge for the last twenty-five years, has been organized at Holland's Church in this county

Amnesty Oath.

Many persons have failed up to the present time to qualify themselves for voting. Owing to their neglect or the small number of magistrates in some counties to administer the oath, many have not yet taken it. We urge all who have failed to take it, to do so at the earliest opportunity.

There will be a partial eclipse of the sun today, (Thursday).

We learn that Dr. Willie Perry one of the oldest and most noted physicians of Franklin County, died near Louisburg on Sunday night last.

REMARKS OF MR. STARBUCK, OF FORSYTH,

On the Ordinance of the delegate from Wake, declaring that all contracts, since 20th of May, 1861, presumed to be payable in Confederate money.

The law has fixed a promise to pay a certain number of dollars, to mean a promise to pay so many dollars in a legal tender or good money.—Here are parties who have entered into a contract in shape of a note or bond to pay so many dollars, and have used precisely the same words which have been well known by all, to mean so many dollars in good money.

The delegate from Wake, proposes to alter or change the contract of the parties by an ordinance of this Convention declaring it to mean Confederate money. Suppose the person who signed this note was to get hold of it and change its meaning from good money to Confederate money, it would be forgery. Thus the gentleman is proposing by an ordinance of this Convention to after a contract, which if done by an individual would whip him at the whipping post.

But it is said that the contract is left open to introduce proof that it was to be paid in good money. And on such proof the plaintiff will get his judgment for good money. So says the forger, I will do all I can to prevent its collection by altering the note so as to make it payable in Confederate money, but if the plaintiff can prove that it was to be paid in good money then he will get it.

This ordinance is nothing less. It proposes to change the legal meaning of a contract contrary to what is expressed in it by the parties, to be their true intent and meaning.

It is nothing less than a vicious and immoral attempt to alter by legislation a contract without the consent of the parties so as to mean what the parties on the face of their contract have said was not their true meaning.

It was to prevent such vicious acts of legislation, (which if perpetuated by individuals would subject them to severe punishment,) that caused our fathers in their wisdom to insert a clause in the Constitution of the United States, forbidding any State from passing any law impairing the obligation of contracts. The Supreme Court of the United States have gone even so far as to intimate an opinion that without any constitutional provision such legislation would be null and void for immorality.

But it is said that most of these contracts were intended to be paid in Confederate money. I deny it. I admit that trading was mostly in Confederate money, that such money was as plenty as the leaves of the forest, and cash was consequently paid in nearly all transactions.

But good money was scarce and could not be had. Hence all contracts to be paid in good money were arranged by giving a note or bond payable in the usual way for so many dollars, which the law declares to mean the payment of good money, and which was well understood by the parties. This was the case in my county, and every where else (I presume) by executors, administrators, trustees and guardians. When they sold property for the benefit of their beneficiaries, they always took a note or bond in that well known legal shape, whereby they would be enabled to collect good money when it was needed by the parties entitled to it. The case was the same with all parties, who renewed old notes. This was not the case with those trading with Confederate money. For the two last years of the war the depreciaton of this money was so rapid, often as much as 50 per cent a week, that no man in his senses thought of selling property on credit to be paid in Confederate money. And consequently such transactions were ninty-nine times in every one hundred for cash. And scarcely any man with sense enough to make a contract ever agreed to sell on credit, and take pay in a money which was depreciating so rapidly. Thus we see that where notes were given they are from the very necessity of the case given by the parties to be paid in good money.

This ordinance is nothing less than an attempt to impair all notes and bonds given for good money, contrary to the meaning of the parties, expressed in their contract and thereby to repudiate all private debts.

Is it not well known that a contract which declares on its face to be to do an immoral or vicious act cannot be enforced. Here is an ordinance which declares that all contracts on their face shall be presumed to be payable in Confed. money issued by a usurped government to carry on a rebellion against the United States. Is it not very doubtful whether such a contract can be enforced. It is nothing less than an attempt to repudiate all private debts or at least to impair them by fixing a meaning on these obligations different from what the parties themselves have declared in said contracts, to be their true intent and meaning.

For the Sentinel.

WARRETON N. C., Oct. 14th, 1865.

MR. EDITOR:—As no account has as yet appeared in any paper of the Tournament which came off near this place a few days ago, I hope you will pardon me for troubling you with a passing notice of the occasion.

Long before the appointed hour arrived, all the available space around the Judge's stand was thronged with old Warren's choicest beauty and noblest chivalry. At 11 o'clock the Knights (fourteen in number,) were formed in front of the stand, and charged by Mr. Junius Goodwyn of Virginia, in a speech replete with sound sense and some of the highest charms of oratory. Mr. Goodwyn, en passant, is a young man of distinguished merit, and likely to make his mark upon his age and country. Well may Virginia be proud of so promising a son.

Next came the titling which continued nearly three hours. The Knights were all well mounted and rode with unusual skill and grace.

The result was as follows:

1st. Mr. Baskerville of Va., [Knight of Parkforest.]

2d. Mr. H. Royster of Granville, [Black Knight.]

3rd. Mr. T. Jones of Warren, [Knight of Rat Casete.]

4th. Mr. Alexander of Va., [Knight of the Plume.]

Miss Alexander of Mecklenburg county was selected as the Queen of Love and Beauty; and the chivalric crown has rarely been placed upon a fairer brow.

The festivities of the day ended with a splendid Ball, which was largely attended by the elite of Warren and the surrounding counties. The occasion passed off with nothing to mar its interest or its pleasure, and long will many of Carolina's gallant sons and beauteous daughters remember the 10th of October, 1865. B.

Synod of Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Oct. 17.

The following resolution was offered in the Kentucky Presbyterian Synod by Rev. J. Breckinridge, last Saturday:

Resolved, That this Synod adjudges the action of the majority of the Louisville Presbyterians, by adopting the paper styled declaration and testimony, assumed such open rebellion against the church, as unfits each and every one of them, to act as members of this or any other convention of the Presbyterian Church.

After several days discussion, it was voted down decisively.

Provision Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.

Flour shows a declining tendency. Sales of 95,000 barrels State brand were made to-day at seven ninety to eight-eighty five; Ohio nine to twelve dollars and sixty cents; Southern, nine seventy to sixteen.

Wheat declined one to two cents. Sales of forty two thousand bushels Chicago spring crop were made at $1.75 to $1.79; Milwaukie club $1.79; amber Milwaukie $1.80; old red western $2; new amber State, $2.35.

Corn declined. Sales amounted to eighty thousand bushels at eighty-six to eighty-nine cents.

Petroleum firm; freights somewhat firmer.

Mississippi Legislature.

JACKSON, Oct. 17.

The State Legislature met yesterday at thi place and organized. A long session is expected.

In the evening Gen. Humphreys was inaugurated as Governor.

"We are Going Home."

We have seen nothing more clearly indicating the pleasure with which some of the Southern people return to the Union than the short address of Mr. Reade, President of the North Carolina Convention, delivered on taking his seat to preside over that body. In the course of his remarks he used the following language:

"Fellow Citizens, We are going home. Let painful reflections upon our late separation, and pleasant memories of our early union, quicken our footsteps toward the old mansion, that we may grasp hard again the hand of Friendship which stands at the door; and sheltered by the old homestead, which was built upon a rock and has weathered the storm, enjoy together the long, bright future, which awaits us."

This is uttered in the true spirit of brotherhood. Its shows that the influence of early education has not been utterly destroyed by rebellion, but that there are those whose memories go back to earlier days, and who rejoice in the prospect of again claiming their rights of citizenship beneath the folds of the banner for which their fathers fought. "We are going home," says Mr. Reade. To an American citizen such an expression is full of meaning. It conveys an idea that is most cherished—of rest, of peace, of happiness. The word "home" symbollizes all these. It is the place we retire to when the struggles of the day are over, to find sympathy and love.—That any one should use such an expression in regard to a re-establishment of political relations, shows how much bitterness and sorrow was entailed by separation, and how powerful are the emotions with which those who were unwillingly forced out of the Union are agitated at the prospect of claiming their old position in their own old country. It is, indeed, like an exile returning to the country of his birth and his affections. Those who were forced by circumstances to submit to the domination of the rebellion were indeed in worse than a foreign country, for they had not the privilege of being strangers. They were compelled in many cases to become citizens of a foreign Power and to take up arms for it.—To such men it will indeed be a pleasure to unite with Mr. Reade in cherishing "pleasant memories of our early union," so as to "quicken their footsteps forward the old "mansion." It was a great and glorious mansion when they were in it but it had a domestic institution which married its economy and poisoned its peace. The family quarreled over this institution, and have now made up their minds to dispense with it. Let us hope, that the bone of contention being removed, the Union of the future will be more harmonious than the Union of the past, so that all entitled to the protection of its laws may find it to be a home indeed.—Lancaster Daily Express.

The Wirz Trial--Episcopal Convention--Foreign News.

The Wirz trial, so far as the testimony is concerned, was concluded on Saturday. The court offered to give the counsel for the defence twelve days in which to prepare his argument, but this Mr. Baker refused to accept. He wanted two weeks and would take nothing less, so he submitted his case without argument. The court adjourned until Wednesday, when Judge Advocate Chapman will deliver his argument for the Government, and thus close the case.

In the General Episcopal Convention at Philadelphia, on Saturday, the Hon. Horace Binney introduced a resolution concurring in the resolution of the House of Bishops, appointing a day of thanksgiving for the return of peace, and expressing the earnest desire that "in the religious services to be appointed for that day, especial thanks be offered to Almighty God, for the re-establishment of the National authority over the whole country, and for the removal of that great occasion of National dissension and estrangement to which our late troubles were due." The resolution created quite a stir among the "conservatives," and was finally laid on the table.

By the steamship Nova Scotia, which passed Farther Point Sunday, we have foreign commercial advices to the 6th instant. The cotton market was excited, and prices had advanced 3-4d with large sales. The Bank of England had advanced its discount rate to six per cent.

North Carolina State Convention.

FOURTEENTH DAY—CONTINUED.

NIGHT SESSION.

October 17th, 7 o'clock, P. M.

Mr. Stubbs of Martin asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Johnston of Washington county for the remainder of the session.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The ordinance "declaring what ordinances are in force and for other purposes" came up on its third reading. Mr. Moore of Wake moved an amendment to the third section, which was, adopted and the ordinance passed. (It will be published in full as soon as we can make room for it.)

Mr. Moore of Wake called up an ordinance to protect the owners of property and for other purposes, and under a suspension of the rules, it passed its several readings. [Provides that persons appointed by the Provisional Governor, Judges of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer are invested with power to exercise severally at their chambers, all the powers and authorities as by the laws of the State are confered on the Judges of the Superior Court of Law and Equity at chambers, and may issue writs of injunction, sequestration, ne exeat, and capias, under the rules prescribed in the Revised Code, for the purpose of protecting and securing against loss or damage, the owner of any kind of estate, real, personal or mixed, or the creditor of any person whatsoever; and to this end may make all necessary rules, orders and decrees; for disobedience whereof the party offending may be attached for contempt. And gives the said Judges power for the full organization of such courts, with means to enforce their writs &c.]

Mr. Smith of Wilks, introduced an ordinance to remove obstructions from the Yadkin River. Lies over.

The ordinance in relation to the late officers of the State came up on its third reading.

Mr. Conigland of Halifax, introduced a substitute.

Mr. Moore of Wake presented a substitute for the substitute.

Mr. Conigland proceeded to support his substitute in a most able speech, but during its delivery gave way to a motion of Mr. Phillips of Orange, to make this ordinance the special order for to-morrow at 1 o'clock, and the motion prevailed.

The tax bill was then taken up, amended and passed its third reading. (This bill and the amendments offered to it, will be reported in full as soon as our limits will permit.)

FIFTEENTH DAY.

October 18th, 1865.

Prayer by the Rev. J. M. Atkinson, of the Presbyterian Church.

The journal was read and approved.

The President remarked that by a resolution of the Convention the President was requested to procure a flag to be hoisted over the Capital during our session. The President conferred with two gentlemen residents here and officially connected with the Convention, and they informed him that an effort had been made and a flag could not be obtained in the city. He then requested those gentlemen to endeavor to procure one. They informed him that they have not been able to do so. Earnestly desiring to do this duty, he hopes both for himself and for the Convention, that the will may be taken for the deed.

Mr. Furches of Davie introduced a resolution requesting Governor Holden to correspond with General Ruger, asking that such horses and mules as had been left with citizens by the Federal Army, should remain as the property of said citizens.

The resolution, under suspension of the rules was adopted.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The resolutions of thanks to President Johnson and Governor Holden came up as the unfinished business, and were adopted. (They have been published.)

The resolution empowering the President to purchase a parchment for the purpose of enrolling the ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May 20th 1861, was adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Eleven o'clock having arrived, the ordinance to organize a temporary force for the preservation of law and order, came up as the special order.

The ordinance is as follows:

Be it ordained by the delegates of the people in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the Sheriffs appointed under the Provisional Government, shall as soon as practicable summons the Justices of the Peace as appointed by the Provisional Governor, for their respective counties, to meet at the Court House of the several counties, on a day certain, and a majority, or such number of said Justices as shall be assembled, shall have power, and they are hereby authorized, to enrol and organize as many military companies, as auxiliaries to the county Police, as they in their discretion may deem necessary, for the preservation of law and order, under the following rules and regulations:

The said Justices shall enrol all or any portion of the free white male residents between the ages of eighteen and thirty-five, and if necessary extend the enrolment to forty-five years.

They shall appoint or direct the election of all necessary officers. They shall prescribe the duties, police or otherwise, to be discharged by said forces. They shall make such exemption as they may deem proper. They shall have power to enfore all their orders by the infliction of such pains and penalties as they may consider necessary, just and proper. And in case of any serious disturbance or outbreak, the said forces shall be deemed auxiliary to the County Police, and shall be subject to the same orders. And the said Justices, shall, from time to time, have power and they are hereby authorized to adopt such measures as they may deem necessary to render the said forces efficient for the purpose herein set forth.

Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall remain in full force until the militia are organized or until it is modified or repealed by the General Assembly.

Be it further ordained, That the Clerk of this Convention shall transmit a copy of this ordinance to each Sheriff and County Court Clerk in the State immediately after its ratification.

Mr. Ferebee said he had not examined the ordinance, but he had no doubt it was as good a one as could be adopted at this late hour. It was necessary for immediate action, nineteen-twentieths of the people of his section were entirely without arms; they have been taken from them from a military necessity, of which I make no complaint. Many negroes, who have been in the service of the United States, have been disbanded and returned home, and most of them with arms, and much uneasiness is felt, and a local defense much desired. He trusted the ordinance would be passed.

Mr. Dockery of Richmond, concurred with the delegate from Camden, and hoped the ordinance would be adopted.

Mr. Barrow of Northampton desired to know Mr. Dockery replied that the committee had of Gen. Ruger approved the ordinance.

called upon the General and he had approved generally of a police force, but that if it assumed the proportions of an army it must be under the United States authority.

Mr. Barrow was not unfavorable to the measure but we must not forget that we are under martial law, and he did not wish to come in conflict with the military authority.

Mr. Dockery referred the delegate from Northampton, to the position of the President in his letter to Gen. Sharkey of Mississippi on this subject,

Mr. Howard of Edgcomb, referred the delegate from Northampton (Mr. Barrow,) to the clause in the ordinance which makes the force, proposed to be raised, auxiliaries to the County Police, and subject to the same orders. And also it was not made obligatory upon Justices to raise the force, but only where in their opinion it was thought necessary.

The ordinance passed its second reading, and upon a further suspension of the rules, upon motion of Mr. Ferebee, the ordinance was finally passed.

The resolutions of inquiry of the Public Treasurer what amount has been expended for the families of indigent soldiers &c," were upon motion of Mr. Brooks of Pasquotank laid on the table.

The resolution calling upon the Governor for copies of certain acts of the General Assembly passed in secret session, was adopted.

The resolution requesting the President to proclaim to the people of North Carolina restored to their rights and privileges under the constitution and the Union was passed.

The resolutions requesting the Governor to correspond with the President of the United States with regard to officers and citizens confined by the military authorities in Raleigh and Wilmington North Carolina were read, and after an amendment offered by Mr. Brooks, so as to include Major Willis Sanderlin, who was confined at Newbern, it was adopted.

Mr. Brooks testified as to the character of Major Sanderlin, and Mr. McKoy of Sampson supported the resolutions.

The resolution to constitute a commission to prepare and report to the Legislature a code of laws on the subject of freedmen, was taken up and passed.

The resolution concerning enrolment of the ordinance prohibiting slavery in North Carolina, was upon motion of Mr. Smith of Johnson, laid on the table.

The ordinance removing obstructions from Yadkin river, was laid upon the table.

An ordinance to appoint a Judge to determine State claims to property, was adopted.

The ordinance in relation to the late officers of the State came up for consideration. The question was upon the substitute of Mr. Moore of Wake, declaring the offices vacated, Mr. Conigland of Halifax proceeded to address the convention in opposition to the substitute.

Mr. Conigland had not concluded his very able argument, when he was interrupted by the following message from the Governor.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, October, 18th, 1865.

To the Hon. Edwin G. Reade, President of the Convention:

Sir—I have just recevied the following telegraphic dispatch from the President of the United States and respectfully request that you will lay it before the Convention.

I have the honor to be with high respect.
Your obedient Servant,
W. W. HOLDEN,
Provisional Governor.

WASHINGTON CITY.
October 18th, 1865.

W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor:

Every dollar of the debt created to aid the rebellion against the United States should be repudiated finally and forever. The great mass of the people should not be taxed to pay a debt to aid in carrying on a rebellion, which they in fact, if left to themselves were opposed to.

Let those who have given their means for the obligation of the States, look to that power they tried to establish in violation of law, constitution and the will of the people. They must meet their fate.

It is their misfortune and cannot be recognized by the people of any State, professing themselves loyal to the government of the United States and in the Union.

I repeat that the loyal people of North Carolina should be exonerated from the payment of every dollar of indebtedness created to aid in carrying on the rebellion.

I trust and hope that the people pf North Carolina will wash their hands of every thing that partake in the slightest degree of the rebellion, which has been so recently crushed by the strong arm of the government in carrying out the obligation imposed by the Constitution of the Union.

ANDREW JOHNSON,
President United States.

Mr. Conigland, resumed his remarks.

Mr. Moore of Wake, replied to Mr. Conigland.

Mr. Mebane of Alamance, spoke in opposition to the substitute.

Mr. Settle of Rockingham, moved to postpone the further consideration of the ordinance until to-night, which was agreed to.

Mr. Sloan of Gaston, moved to reconsider the vote by which the Convention agreed to adjourn on Thursday morning at 5 o'clock a. m.

Mr. Cowper of Hertford, demanded the yeas and nays, and it was sustained, and the vote was reconsidered.

Yeas 78. Nays 25.

Mr. Sloan moved to lay on the table, the proposition to adjourn at 5 o'clock A. M. on Thursday and his motion prevailed.

Mr. Jones of Rowan moved that the Convention recess until 7½ o'clock to night, and the motion prevailed.

Tennessee Legislature.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 13.—The House of Representatives of this State, which yesterday, by a vote of 35 to 25, laid on the table resolutions endorsing President Johnson's reconstruction policy, subsequently passed the following, by ayes 60, nays 4:

Resolved, That we endorse the administration of his Excellency, the President of the United States, and especially his declaration that treason shall be made odious, and traitors punished.

Intelligence from Mexico, via Havana, to the 30th of Sept., states that Lieut. Maury, late rebel official, has received from Maximilian naturalization papers, and is therefore now a Mexican citizen.

Indemnity from England for Confederate Privateer Depredations--The Wirz Trial--Ohio State Senatorship--Chief Justice Chase and Negro Suffrage.

From Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The assertion is made positively in intelligent quarters, that there is now before the Government something in the nature of a proposal from the British authorities to pay damages arising from the depredations of Confederate privateers fitted out at British ports, and also to arrive at some agreement, which shall prevent a recurrence of like transactions hereafter, as between the two nations, whether the hostile condition exists in Great Britain or in the United States.

The Wirz trial is near its close. It is stated by the reporters, Messrs. Hinks, Hayes and Browne, that in the amount of testimony, is equal to that given in the great conspiracy trial.

It is stated here in inside Republican circles that John Sherman will be returned a Senator from Ohio instead of Gen. Schenck, for the time expiring with 1866. The former is regarded as favoring reforms in the currency, a just modification of the revenue and excise laws in the interest of tax payers, and of reforms and retrenchments generally.

Chief Justice Chase reached home to-day. It is considered that he is in difficulties, since the rebuff of the Northern people to his doctrine of negro suffrage, and especially that of the President to him in person for political proselyting to to that end in the South.

If You are Threatened with Pneumonia,

Read the following from Capt. W. P. Davis, of Petersburg, Va.:

"Sympathy for the suffering prompts me to certify that my servant man was suffering in the last stage of Pneumonia, throwing up matter and blood in great quantities; his case was considered entirely hopeless, so much so, that there was no medical perscription used for his recovery; I regarded him as good as dead. Hearing of the great cures made by the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS, I thought that I would try an experiment on him; without any hope of success; however, I gave the Pills in large doses; in a short time, to my great surprise, there was a change for the better; I continued giving them to him, until he became a perfectly sound man. He is now attending to his work with as much strength and vigor as he ever did.—With his case, and what I have seen and heard of the good effects of these Pills, I do most earnestly recommend them as the best family medicine I have ever seen or used."

MARRIED,

On the 11th inst., at 11 o'clock, A. M., by Rev. T. G. Whitaker, Mr. S. M. WHITAKER, to MISS NANCY TURNER.

Also on the same day, at 7 o'clock, P. M., by the same, MR. W. N. SNELLING, to MISS AMELIA A. WHITAKER. All of Wake.

In Granville County, on Wednesday last, at the residence of the brides father, WM. H. P. JENKINS, Esq., to MISS LOU, daughter of Henry and Nancy Kearney.

DIED,

In Louisburg, N. C., at the residence of William H. Furman, Esq., on the evening of the 15th inst, THOMAS B. JONES, in the 50th year of his age. The deceased fought with distinction during the war between the United States and Mexico, and served with equal fidelity in the Confederate army from the beginning of its ill-advised and disastrous struggle with the Federal forces, until its surrender under Gen. Lee. Having escaped the multiplied dangers of a score of battle-fields, he met his death by a fall from a horse, and he now sleeps quietly in an unpretending grave. The home of Mr. Jones was at King's Ferry, Nassau, Co., Florida. W.

PLANTATION FOR RENT.

THE SUBSCRIBER, HAVING ENGAGED IN another business, wishes to rent out his plantation for the ensuing year. He does not want more than eight, nor less than six hands worked upon it. For this number of hands, the opportunity for making a crop is unusually fine. The chance for

COTTON AND CORN,

is very good, and for

TOBACCO AND OATS,

superior. There are seventy thousand tobacco hills which may be put in, that will make good tobacco without manure, and there is plenty of the very best tobacco land that may be cleared. The location is in a very fine neighborhood, three miles from Macon Depot on the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road, and is one of the most healthy and delightful in the County. The residence contains six rooms, and there are all the necessary outhouses and a good orchard. He will sell everything necessary to carry on the farm—stock, crop, team, plantation implements, &c., &c. Address, or call upon
